Law Enforcement and Seniors Working Together

WHAT IS A TRIAD?

TRIAD
Is an agreement between local law enforcement, service providers and older or retired volunteers in our community to work together.

TRIAD
Is a concept of cooperation to reduce criminal victimization of the elderly.

TRIAD
Is a joint approach to crime and safety issues which affect older citizens and the enhanced delivery of law enforcement.

Louisville Metro TRIAD
Responds to the unique needs of our community and its older population.

TRIAD
Includes the Louisville Metro Police Department, AARP, and the Jefferson County Sheriff's Office in cooperation with local seniors and service providers.

Louisville Metro TRIAD meets monthly on the 2nd Tuesday at 11:30 AM at Swiss Hall, 719 Lynn Street

WHAT DOES TRIAD DO?

COMMUNICATE
by providing a forum for law enforcement and the community to share needs and concerns—and develop solutions.

EDUCATE
through crime prevention programs and victim / witness programs for older persons.
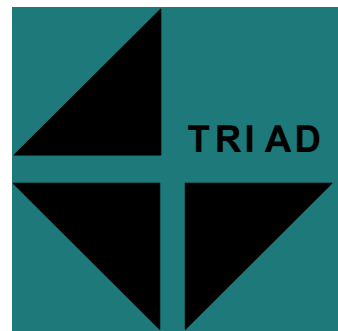

EMPHASIZE
training programs for older persons to reduce fear and provide moral support.

INCREASE
public awareness of safety concerns for older persons and of the need to be alert for signs of elder maltreatment.

INVOLVE
seniors and law enforcement together in developing community-wide solutions.

TRIAD

WHAT CAN RESULT?

REDUCED
victimization of older persons.

IMPROVED
quality of life for older residents of our community.

FOCUSED
attention to the crime-related needs and concerns of older persons.

EXPANDED
involvement of the community in implementing effective solutions.

INCREASED
community knowledge of services, resources and events.

ENHANCED
law enforcement services to seniors through increased respect and understanding.
